FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Local court reporter named to NCRA's 2017 class of Academy of Professional Reporters Fellows

Breck Record becomes Fellow of the Academy of Professional Reporters

LAS VEGAS, Aug. 11, 2017— The National Court Reporters Association (NCRA), the country's leading organization representing stenographic court reporters, broadcast captioners, CART captioners, and legal videographers, today announced that Breck Record, RMR, CRR, CRI, an official court reporter from Midland, Texas, has been awarded Fellowship in the Academy of Professional Reporters. The Academy recognizes recipients for their outstanding and extraordinary qualifications and experience. The announcement was made during a special awards luncheon held at the NCRA Convention & Expo, taking place in Las Vegas, Nev., Aug. 10-13.

“Membership in the Academy of Professional Reporters is by nomination only, so to be granted fellowship is a high point in a reporter's career,” said Dave Wenhold, CAE, PLC, interim Executive Director and CEO of NCRA. “Criteria for being accepted include exhibiting outstanding and extraordinary qualifications and experience in the field of shorthand reporting as well as having been active in the practice of reporting for at least 10 years. Candidates for fellowship are also required to have attained distinction as measured by such activities as the publication of important papers, creative contributions, committee or board service, and teaching,” he added.

Record, a reporter since 1983, has worked as an official court reporter as well as a freelance reporter, in various cities in Texas. Record has served on a number of NCRA committees, including its Technology, Student Community of Interest, and Peers Helping Peers committees. He was also influential in helping develop the Realtime Systems Administrator certificate program.

He is a past director for the Texas Court Reporters Association (TCRA) and has served on its Student/Force, Education, and Technology Committees. Record has also served on the Court Reporting Advisory Board for San Antonio College. He has also authored numerous articles pertaining to the reporting profession for NCRA, TCRA, and NewsCache. Record is most well known for his “Encouraging Court Reporting Students” Facebook group. With more than 7,000 members, the group serves as a motivation tool for reporting students. He holds the nationally recognized professional certifications of Registered Merit Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter, and Certified Reporting Instructor.

Record was one of seven NCRA members awarded Fellowship in the 2017 Academy.
