NCRF announces 2017-2018 trustees Local court reporter Karen Teig to serve three-year term

LAS VEGAS, Nev., Aug. 12, 2017 - The National Court Reporters Foundation (NCRF), the philanthropic arm of the National Court Reporters Association (NCRA), the country's leading organization representing stenographic court reporters, broadcast and CART captioners, and legal videographers, announced that Karen Teig, RPR, CRR, CMRS, an official court reporter from Cedar Rapids, Iowa, will serve a three-year term on its Board of Trustees.

Teig has extensive experience volunteering and serving on boards, both in her personal and professional life, and she has had specific training on how to advocate for a philanthropic project. She served on numerous state and national committees; is a past state and national board member; and is past president of her state association. Teig is well respected in the industry and has a true passion to serve. She has a true spirit of giving back and has been a long-time supporter of NCRF, whether promoting NCRF during state rep visits, transcribing histories for the Veterans History Project, helping raise funds through her service on the Angels Drive Committee, or donating to NCRF through the Angels program.

Teig holds the nationally recognized professional certification of Registered Professional Reporter, Certified Realtime Reporter, and Certified Manager of Reporting Services.

The following individuals were also installed to serve on the 2017-2018 NCRF Board of Trustees were Danielle Griffin, RPR, Phoenix, Ariz.; and Sandy VanderPol, FAPR, RMR, CRR, Lotus, Calif.

Current Trustees include: NCRF Chair Nancy Hopp, St. Louis, Mo., FAPR, RDR, CRR, CMRS; Debi Cheyne, Sherwood, Ore.; Jane Fitzgerald, RMR, Pleasant Hill, Iowa; Tami Keenan, FAPR, RPR, CPE, Battle Creek, Mich.; Teresa Kordick, FAPR, RDR, CRR, CRC, CRI, CPE, Des Moines, Iowa; Cregg Seymour, Baltimore, Md.; and Nancy Varallo, FAPR, RDR, CRR, Worcester, Mass. NCRA Secretary-Treasurer Debra A. Dibble, RDR, CRR, CRC, Woodland, Utah, will also serve in the same role for NCRF.
