Good afternoon Colin Brehm,

I believe the bill you are referring to proposes to make the program an Assistant Commission run profession similar to many others under the regulatory boards within Commerce and Insurance. It does not eliminate the licensing requirements. It does not change the any other laws and/or rules other than making it an Assistant Commissioner run board.

Thank you for reaching the board and take care.

To whom it may concern:

I am writing in response to a member claiming that Tennessee is moving to end the licensure of court reporters in the state by moving it from being a licensure board to being under the control of the commerce and insurance director, or a designee as seen fit. Can this be confirmed or further context provided?

Thank you.

Colin Brehm
State Government Relations Manager
National Court Reporters Association

Thank you for contacting the Department of Commerce and Insurance.
Have a great day!
